

FAITH ON FIRE

Helping Men Return To God, Restore Relationships,
Reignite Their Purpose & Remain Connected

A BROTHERHOOD FOR MEN WHO REFUSE TO DRIFT™

Marc Feinberg
FOUNDER

Table of contents

Table of contents

Chapter 1:

The Price For Disobedience

The Cost of Staying Away

Chapter 2: Pillar #1 Return

The Repentance That Changes Everything

Steps of Repentance

Chapter 3: Reconnect

Prayer, The Word, & Praise

Chapter 4:

Find Your People

You Cannot Isolate Anymore

4 Lies Men Believe

Chapter 5: Pillar #2 Restore

Making Peace With the Man in the Mirror

Chapter 6: Forgiveness

You Are One Decision Away From Freedom

Chapter 7: Pillar #3 Reignite

Come Into Alignment With Your God Given Assignment

Chapter 8: The New Man

Chapter 9: Pillar #4 Remain

Keep The Fire Burning!

Resources For Your Journey

Chapter 10: The Invitation

Come Into the Brotherhood & Remain On Fire For God

Chapter 1:

The Price For Disobedience

Why backsliding costs more than you think and why God is already running toward you

Every journey back to God begins with a moment of honest reckoning. Maybe yours is happening now, or maybe you've spent years battling the silent ache of spiritual distance. Most men don't walk away from faith overnight, it's a slow drift, a season of compromise, one buried hope at a time. Yet the consequence is real and profound: a God-sized void that nothing in life can truly fill. The truth is, spiritual backsliding costs us more than we often realize. The emptiness, the gnawing sense of disconnection, the cycle of striving and regret, all of it quietly steals joy, purpose, and peace.

But here's the beautiful surprise: God is already running toward you. The parable of the Prodigal Son (Luke 15) is not just a tale for the distant past it's your story and mine. The moment you turn, no matter how far you've wandered, the Father doesn't just wait, He runs. He restores, He celebrates, and He calls you son. Let's face the cost of staying away, but also the overwhelming grace waiting for your return.

The God-shaped void is no myth. We fill it with work, relationships, distractions, or even substance, but it never quite fits. Romans 6:23 lays out the stakes: 'For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.' The solution isn't to try harder but to surrender to the love that never left you. John 10:10 reminds us, 'The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy; I have come that they may have life, and have it to the full.'

Jeremiah 2:19 calls us to attention: 'Your wickedness will punish you; your backsliding will rebuke you. Consider then and realize how evil and bitter it is for you when you forsake the LORD your God.' This is not condemnation it's an urgent invitation.

This book lays out a simple, Four-Step Roadmap back: return, restore, reignite & remain. These aren't formulas they're living pathways that have changed countless lives, including mine. After 31 years, I found myself on my knees, broken yet finally ready. If He can receive me, He is longing to welcome you too.

In the pages ahead, you'll discover why coming home is the best decision you'll ever make and how God's love is bigger than every failure or regret.

— “ —

God never turns away a returning son. The way back is always open.

Charles Spurgeon

The Cost of Staying Away

Emptiness That Won't Leave

No matter our success, when we're far from God, a deep emptiness lingers. Fame, fortune, relationships, nothing fills the God-shaped hole in our hearts.

The Cycle of Guilt and Regret

Distance from God launches a repeated cycle of guilt, regret, and striving. We run, but never quite outrun the consequences.

Longing For Home

Every human heart, at some point, aches for a return to peace and purpose. The good news: the way home is possible, no matter how lost you feel.

Chapter 2: Pillar #1 Return

The Repentance
That Changes
Everything

One honest prayer can undo years of distance!

Return begins not with right behavior, but with an open heart. Many men shrink from the word 'repentance,' mistaking it for shame or penance, some endless groveling before God. In truth, biblical repentance is far more liberating. It is a change of heart, a turning from the old and a reaching for the new. More than saying 'I'm sorry,' it's the courageous moment you stop running and let God catch up with you. For men, this often means smashing through pride to admit real need.

Scripture assures us: 'If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just and will forgive us our sins and purify us from all unrighteousness.' (1 John 1:9) The slate is wiped clean, not by our performance, but by God's promise. Psalm 51:10 captures this plea: 'Create in me a pure heart, O God, and renew a steadfast spirit within me.'

Repentance often starts with a single, honest prayer. It can dismantle decades of distance in a matter of seconds. It may sound like this: 'God, I need You. I've wandered, I'm tired, and I want to come home.' No magic words, just real surrender.

For some, repentance requires wrestling with forgiveness, not just asking God's forgiveness, but sometimes, if we're honest, forgiving God for the disappointments and pain we can't explain. He's big enough for your honest questions. Communing with Him through communion or the public declaration of baptism are not cold rituals, but acts that signal a new direction. Romans 6:4 says, 'We were therefore buried with him through baptism into death in order that, just as Christ was raised from the dead... we too may live a new life.'

— “ —

Returning to God doesn't just rescue you from your past. It launches you toward your purpose.

Craig Groeschel

Steps of Repentance

Honest Confession

Repentance starts with being fully honest before God. Say it out loud: what's really on your heart, what regrets, what pain? He already knows.

Turning Around

Repentance means changing direction. With God's help, resolve to walk a new way, even if it's one small step at a time.

Public Declaration

Baptism and communion are external markers of an inward change, a way to declare, 'I am His, and I am home.'

Chapter 3: Reconnect

Prayer, The Word, & Praise

Daily habits that keep the fire burning!

Reconnection with God doesn't happen in grand gestures alone. It's forged in a thousand quiet moments, the morning prayer in your car, the open Bible on a sleep-fogged table, the worn seat in a back-row pew. Spiritual discipline isn't glamorous, but it is the fuel that keeps faith alive. Men thrive on routine so reclaim your mornings, lunch breaks, or commutes as sacred space. It isn't about length or eloquence; it's about presence and persistence.

Want real change? Make it a habit to pray, read, meditate, and praise daily. Philippians 4:6–7 offers a blueprint: 'Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. And the peace of God... will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.' Prayer is honest conversation, no filters, no pretensions. The Word renews our minds: 'Do not conform to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind.' (Romans 12:2)

Let the Bible become your instruction manual and anchor. Regular reading, not as a religious box to check, but a way to hear God's heart, brings clarity and strength for every challenge. Joshua 1:8 says, 'Keep this Book of the Law always on your lips; meditate on it day and night.'

Praise and worship are more than music, they're powerful weapons. In Acts 16:25–26, chains literally broke when men chose to praise in prison. Your own chains of addiction, guilt, or discouragement shatter the same way. Develop spiritual disciplines that last. The man who keeps the fire burning is the man transformed.

Chapter 4:
Find Your People
You Cannot Isolate Anymore

The brother who sharpens you, the church that holds you, the fellowship that saves you

The Christian journey is not, and never was, meant to be walked alone. Isolation is one of the enemy's oldest weapons; a lone sheep is easy prey. The four most common lies that keep men isolated are insidious: 'You're too far gone,' 'It's too late,' 'God has moved on,' and 'You don't need anyone.' Yet, each of these is squarely demolished by God's Word.

Hebrews 10:24–25 calls us to 'consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds, not giving up meeting together... but encouraging one another.' Real church is a lifeline, not a club. Small groups, Bible studies, and accountability partners give us the push and support we need.

Proverbs 27:17 proclaims, 'As iron sharpens iron, so one person sharpens another.' Relationships shape our destinies. Seek out brothers who will speak truth and walk beside you. Acts 2:42–47 gives a picture of the earliest church: committed, confident, connected, unshakeable, unbreakable, and unstoppable. Don't believe you can do it alone. Find your people, and you'll find your supernatural strength.

4 Lies Men Believe

Lie #1: Too Far Gone

No matter where you've been or what you've done, God's grace is greater than your past pain and your many mistakes.

Lie #2: Too Late

God's timing is always perfect. Restoration is available today, right now. You're not too old and it's never too late to return.

Lie #3: God Has Moved On

God's love never fails. He will never leave you or forsake you. Turn around He is right there.

Lie #4: I Can Do It Alone

Isolation is spiritual danger. We are designed for connection, community and accountability.

Chapter 5: Pillar #2 Restore

Making Peace With the Man in the Mirror

Surrender your past before it steals your future!

Restoration is both a one-time gift and a lifelong process. Many men find it easy to forgive others but agonizingly hard to forgive themselves. Old failures, regrets, and shame linger in the mirror, whispering that you'll always be defined by your lowest moment. But the gospel flips this script: 'We are God's workmanship, created in Christ Jesus to do good works.' (Ephesians 2:10)

Restoration means allowing God to rewrite your identity, moving past shame and stepping into sonship. Philippians 3:13–14 calls us to 'forget what is behind and strain toward what is ahead... to win the prize for which God has called me.'

Self-worth is not rooted in performance but in Christ's finished work. 1Corinthians 6:19–20 reminds us, 'You are not your own; you were bought at a price.' Self-care isn't selfish, it's stewardship. When you make peace with the man in the mirror, you release your future from the chains of your past.

ACTION STEP: Draft your own 'covenant with yourself.' Make a promise, with God's help, to release old regrets and step into your new identity.

Chapter 6: Forgiveness

You Are One Decision Away From Freedom

Why forgiveness isn't for them. It's for you.

Forgiveness stands at the heart of freedom. We are commanded to forgive, not as a favor to others, but as a pathway to our own liberty. Yet, many men become prisoners of past hurts, replaying wounds and betrayals. Jesus' words are unambiguous: 'If you forgive other people when they sin against you, your heavenly Father will also forgive you. But if you do not forgive others their sins, your Father will not forgive your sins.'

(Matthew 6:14–15)

Forgiveness isn't about forgetting or denying pain. It's a decision to release resentment and trust God with justice. Colossians 3:13 commands, 'Bear with each other and forgive one another... forgive as the Lord forgave you.' Freedom always follows forgiveness.

Sometimes the hardest forgiveness isn't toward others, it's toward yourself, or even God for the unanswered prayers. Make amends, if possible, like Zacchaeus in Luke 19:8, yet rest in the truth that you are not ..

Chapter 7: Pillar #3 Reignite Come Into Alignment With Your God Given Assignment

Your calling didn't expire while you were away

It's a lie that your mistakes have canceled your mission. God's assignments are irrevocable. He never wastes a surrendered life. In returning, you are not relegated to the sidelines; you are called back to purpose, influence, and impact. Ephesians 4:1 encourages, 'Live a life worthy of the calling you have received.' Stepping back into God's assignment is less about feeling worthy, more about saying 'yes' to God again.

- Habakkuk 2:2–3 urges you to 'Write down the vision... though it linger, wait for it.' God hasn't changed His mind about your purpose. Obedience, small repeated steps is the on-ramp to destiny.
- Fan into flame the gifts God placed in you. Mentor others; build a Dream Team of coaches and confidants for mutual encouragement.
- Isaiah 40:31 promises, 'But those who hope in the Lord will renew their strength... they will soar on wings like eagles.'
- Walk in the abundance God has promised and multiply leaders 2Timothy 2:2
- Obedience brings blessings. Deuteronomy 28:1–2 guarantees it. Your assignment awaits.

Chapter 8:

The New Man

Case studies: What returning, restoring, and reignition look like in real life

Let's bring the journey home with a real story, one that reflects what God can do when a man dares to return. Meet Daniel: 17 years away from church, wrecked by addiction, marriage on the rocks, career unraveling. Most of all, he'd convinced himself that the damage was too deep for even God. One night, a call from an old friend shifted everything. Daniel took the first hesitant step: he prayed honestly for the first time in years. The weight didn't vanish overnight, but he sensed hope flickering.

He joined a men's group, confessed his struggles, and began attending church again. The road was hardly smooth, but through daily prayer, Bible reading, and spiritual friendships, Daniel experienced steady change. Forgiveness became real, both for himself and others. In time, his marriage healed, his sense of purpose revived, and he became a mentor to younger men facing similar trials. Joel 2:25 came alive: 'I will restore to you the years that the locust has eaten.' Daniel's story is one example of countless lives transformed by the four-step journey: return, restore, reignite and remain.

Chapter 9: Pillar #4 Remain

Keep The Fire Burning!

Reclaiming faith is not a finish line but a new beginning. The biggest obstacles men face after returning are usually the old whispers: doubt, fear, temptation, and isolation. This chapter is your survival guide!

1. Return: Examine your heart and write one honest prayer daily.
2. Reconnect: Commit to 10 minutes of Bible reading/prayer every day for one month.
3. Reignite: List your gifts. Schedule one meeting this month to encourage or mentor another man.
4. Remain: How to join and remain in fellowship and connected to the brotherhood.

Keep a pocket reference of key scriptures. Journal regularly, growth is most visible in writing. And above all, do not disappear. Stay engaged with church, small groups, or an accountability partner. The fire you've started is meant to burn brighter each and every day.

Resources For Your Journey

Men's Accountability Groups

Weekly connection with a group of men offers lasting support, accountability, and a safe place to be vulnerable.

Faith Study Workbooks

Practical guides for daily devotional rhythms, reflection, and deeper scripture engagement.

Journaling Discipline

Journaling helps you track growth, process struggles, and celebrate spiritual wins. Start with 5 minutes each morning and/or evening.

Where Men Struggle Most

- Isolation (34)
- Guilt/Shame (28)
- Lack of Direction (17)
- Forgiveness Struggles (12)
- Other (9)

Based on survey of 250 men in faith recovery (2025). Faith On Fire survey results.

Chapter 10: The Invitation

Come Into the Brotherhood & Remain On Fire For God

The Next Step

You have made it to the end of this journey but in truth, this is just the beginning. Every page, every scripture, every action step has been an open invitation to step fully into the life God designed for you. In this ebook, you've seen the roadmap: return to God, restore relationships, reignite your purpose, and remain in Christ. This is the core of the Faith On Fire message & it's now time for you to turn the heat up on your faith.

If you're ready for more,
the Faith On Fire
Mastercourse is your next step. Each chapter here becomes a full module, every concept taught in video, every action step unpacked in a workbook.
The fire is burning now
let's add the next log.

You've read the map. Now let us walk the road with you. As a thank you for reading, access an exclusive offer on the Faith On Fire course.

This invitation is for every man ready to return, rebuild, and run his race. The fire awaits! When would NOW be a good time to step into your next chapter?

Go to www.faithonfire.world
and sign up today

FAITH ON FIRE

Helping Men Return To God, Restore Relationships,
Reignite Their Purpose & Remain Connected

A BROTHERHOOD FOR MEN WHO REFUSE TO DRIFT™
